Description: A new book from the author of When Hello Means Goodbye. Created especially for children who are suffering the loss of their families pregnancy....

Review: I love this book. We got it from the NICU staff and the kids and I all love it. Especially the last line... It gets me every time. I think a baby would have been more fun. After reading the bad reviews I need to ask something. If the wording that our baby died is SO offensive, I can see why people are so cold and heartless to us when we lose one of...
